Trinity Concerts

2009-2010
18th season

Special season of performances to celebrate the 10th birthday of Trinity's organ

Friday, October 30, 2009
7:30 p.m.

Our season commences with a silent movie of Phantom of the Opera accompanied with Trinity's organ played by Don Kinnier. Don has become well known to concert, comedy and silent film audiences throughout the Delaware Valley and beyond. Don's programs are easy-going, fun and contain a large dose of good-natured humor, both verbal and musical. This is a not-to-be-missed season starter!

Ashley Ross, a student at Westminster Choir College, has just finished up her final year as an under graduate and will be receiving her degree in December in Sacred Music. You may have seen her around Trinity last season, she was the music intern! Ashley grew up in church choirs her whole life, mostly with her mother leading the way. Her mother and father are both Westminster Graduates and have worked as church musicians all over. After this year she will be enrolled at Cincinnati Conservatory of Music to receive her Music Education degree.
